(2015-16) 65	Highways and Road Safety Working Group 65.1 Proposed by Cllr MacAndrew that "The council will establish a 20mph Working Group. The Working Group will research the 20mph speed limit proposal including Highways regulations and rough cost estimates. The Working Group will conduct an objective public consultation to assess the residents' views on various options for a 20mph speed limit, the options to be determined by the Working Group. At the conclusion of the research and consultation the Working Group will recommend whether the council should apply for a 20mph speed limit zone in Buckden, and if so what the extent of that zone should be."  65.2 Proposed by Cllr Screaton that "In order not to miss the potential opportunity of LHI funding, that the council will make an LHI grant application to be submitted by 2 Nov which requires a commitment to 10% match funding by the council. This application will be to introduce a 20mph limit/zone into the village (with boundaries to be determined). This proposal is on the understanding that the application will either be withdrawn or modified, depending upon the council's decision informed by the recommendation of the working group following the proposed public consultation and more detailed costing."
